BHAGAVAN AND ALL HIS BHAKTAS

PREFACE

Stotra Ratna Mala, as the name suggests, is a garland of spiritual hymns. It contains a good selection of very important prayers and hymns relating to Devotion, Viveka, Vairagya Philosophy and the highest truths of the Adwaita Vedanta preached by Sri Sankaracharya of revered memory. Many of the prayers are culled out from his minor works. There are a good number of his writings in both the sections of this book. It contains prayers addressed to various deities and hence is suited to Upasaks of different Devatas. Devotees of all types can find the stotras addressed to their respective Ishta-Devatas. Bhaktas as well as Vedantins can go in for this book with equal interest. It is a boon to all the aspirants in general.

This book will create interest in the minds of aspirants for quick evolution, faith in God in the atheists and supreme joy and bliss for those who study it daily without fail. It will be a guide and a whip to goad one in the spiritual path.

The importance of hymns and prayers can never be over emphasised. Prayer should be the constant and inseparable companion of the aspirant in his spiritual path till he attains the final beatitude or Jivanmukti. Prayer makes.

the mind calm and introspective. Prayer bestows peace. It turns the mind towards God. Prayer awakens the spiritual force in man. It is the master key to open the realms of eternal bliss. It is the expression of the spirit within. Prayer can efficiently help the control of mind. It is the real guide and preceptor.

These prayers and hymns are the utterances of realised seers of the past. Therefore they will surely influence, elevate and inspire the readers. These are the thoughts of devotees and Gnanis in their hour of meditation. Devotees expressed their thoughts at the time of their communion with the Lord and the Gnanis expressed their own experience of Self-realisation in these words. This Stotra Ratna Mala is a collection of such utterances. One who knows even a little of Sanskrit can well appreciate the deep thoughts contained in these prayers. The Vedantic Stotras of Sri Sankara are highly soul elevating. The expressions of Sri Vilwamangal Swami and Lila Suka who composed the Govinda Damodara Stotram and Sri Krishna Karnamritam are very inspiring. Due to want of space a few selections only have been included here.

Section I contains a collection of good prayers to different deities and they are useful for one and all. Section II contains the gist of the whole Vedanta Philosophy, in the form of Stotras. They are not merely Stotras but Sutras (Aphorisms) as well. Any one who deeply understands these Stotras can practise meditation nicely.

If a spiritual aspirant daily goes through this book once, a portion even if not the whole, he will derive great spiritual benefits. It will help him much in his spiritual progress. It will give him joy, peace and bliss in his spiritual progress. It will give him joy, peace and bliss in his tiring worldly activities. It contains all points for meditation. If the aspirant is able to get by heart all these Stotras he can very easily meditate for 6 hours at a stretch. He should be one with its spirit and real significance. This gives the maximum benefit.

May you all attain the state of Jivanmukti in this very birth by regular prayer, constant Japa, Sankirtan, selfless service, study, reflection and meditation on the Supreme Atma Tattwa ! May the blessings of Sri Sankara and other Brahma Vidya Gurus be upon you all !!

Cutting down the Brahmanda, giving splendour to the matted hair of Lord Siva, falling down from heaven and passing through Sumeru of golden hue, and reaching the earth, thou removest all the multitudes of sins and fill up the ocean with thy waters. May that sacred Ganges water ever purify us, which is filled with the bees who have drunk deep the sweet smell of Madira falling from the head of the elephants in the act of taking bath ; those waters whose colour have been changed by the contact with the turmeric powder applied on the breasts of Deva ladies and filled with the flowers and Kusa grass after the morning and evening Sandhya prayers of great Munis ; and whose waters come speedily disturbed by the tusks of wild elephants on the way. May the waters of the Ganges protect us from sin !

1. O Lord ! cast thy merciful glance on me with thy cheerful face adorned with the playing of the flute. If you are pleased with me, I crave for nothing else. If you are not pleased with me, nothing else gives me joy. (Worldly pleasures serve no purpose without thy grace.)

हे देव ! हे दयित ! हे जगदेकवन्धो-
 हे कृष्ण ! हे चपल ! हे करुणैकमिन्धो ।
 हे नाथ ! हे रमण ! हे नयनाभिराम !

2. O All-pervading Lord ! Thou art the only hope of this world. O Krishna, O ocean of mercy, Hey Natha ! He Ramana ! Thy form captivates me. When shall I be blessed with thy vision ? When will that day dawn when I can see you.

4. This is the Lord (Krishna) who dispels sorrows from the minds of sages who do severe Tapas; this is the Lord who concealed the clothes of the Gopikas; this is the Lord who curbed the anger of Indra, this is the Lord who attracted my heart and immersed it in His devotion.

5. There is no one else in this world who is my object of devotion ; there is no one else who can fulfill my desires. ; there is no one else to enlighten me. Thou art my life itself. There is no deity greater than Thee O Lord !

कान्तिः कालिय शासनस्य वपुषः सा पावनी पातुनः ॥६॥

5. May the unparalleled brilliance of the destroyer of Kaliya-serpent (Lord Krishna) protect us, seeing which the herds of cows approach for drinking water mistaking it for the Jamuna river, the peacocks begin to dance taking it for the dark cloud, seeing which the Gopikas approach mistaking it for the tree from which they generally pluck leaves for their play.

7. O mother! pray, excuse me for the trouble I have given you by remaining in your womb for ten months. Thou art always forgiving towards me. I shall do away with that sin by singing the praises of Vishnu who acted in the guise of Gopala Krishna (the attendant on cows).

8. The Lord's flute which is nothing but a piece of bamboo is so fortunate as to enjoy His company closer than any one else. Can I be so fortunate as to be born as a bamboo like that of the Lord's, near the Jamuna river in my next birth (so that the Lord may select me for his flute).

10. Will not the All-merciful Lord protect those who take refuge in Him when He has, in days of yore, saved the cows and cow-boys from the great fire on the banks of the Jamuna when He went to graze the cows?

घोषप्रघोषशमनाय मयोगुणेन-

11. Once Yasoda tied Sri Krishna to a post by His waist for the alleged theft of butter to pacify the Gopa ladies of Gokul, but that act of hers proved to be the cause of great distress for the three worlds, depending on Whom the worlds exist.

12. I meditate on that Supreme Reality which is seen in human form in Brindavan, under the trees and between the cows, with a crown decorated with the feathers of the peacock, and the flute fixed to His face, and who is realised as the fruit of the study of all the Vedas.

3. Let the Yogis with their mind controlled by the practice of meditation visualize that Nirguna, actionless, indescribable and Supreme Jyoti, if they do ; but for us that blue-shining image that moves here and there on the banks of the Kalindi (Jamuna) river, ever comes before our eyes.

विग्रह सन्धौ ।

भव समचित्तः सर्वत्र त्वं वाञ्छस्य—

चिरायति विष्णुत्वम् ॥७॥

त्वयि मयि सर्वत्रैकोऽविष्णुः

त्वं कुप्यसि मय्यसहिष्णुः ।

सर्वस्मिन्नपि परमात्मानं सर्वत्रो—

त्सुज भेदाज्ञानम् ॥८॥

8. In me, in you, everywhere is Vishnu. Why do you vainly get angry with me? See everywhere the Self or Atman and leave off the differentiating mentality.

प्राणायामं प्रत्याहारं—

नित्यानित्य विवेक विचारम् ।

ज्ञाप्य ममेत समाधि विधानं—

तद्वज्जीवितमतिशय चपलम् ।

विद्धि व्याध्यभिमानं प्रसृतं—

लोकं शोकहंसं च समस्तम् ॥१०॥

10. The drop of water fallen in the lotus leaf is always shaking and unsteady; so is life here unsteady. By disease, vanity and various other sorrows this Samsara is bound. The ignorant suffer from various tribulations.

कातेऽष्टादशदेशे चिन्ता—

चातुल किन्तव नास्ति नियन्ता ।

यस्त्वां हस्ते मुरदनिबद्धं—

बोधयति प्रभवादि विरुद्धम् ॥११॥

11. O foolish Jiva! Why are you entertaining thoughts in a variety of objects (eighteen places)? Is there nobody to control you, who will bind you hand and foot and teach you the true knowledge which is beyond (opposed to) Samsara i.e., Atma Gyana?

गुरु चरखान्बुज निर्मेर मङ्गः

मंसारादचित्तद्रव मुक्तः ।

सेन्द्रिय मानस नियमादेव—

द्रव्यसि निज हृदयस्यं देवम् ॥१२॥

येषां चित्ते नैव विवेकस्तेष्यन्ते

नरक मनेकम् ॥१३॥

13. These twelve verses were the instructions to his disciples (of Sri Sankara). Those who are devoid of Viveka (discrimination) will suffer a great deal of the pangs of hell.

SADHANA PANCHAKAM

वेदान्तियमर्थायतां तदुद्दिष्टं कर्मस्यनुष्ठीयताम्-
 तेनेशस्य विधीयतामपचितिः काम्ये मतिस्त्वग्यनाम् ।
 पापौघः परिभूयतां भवमुने दोषोऽनुमन्धीयनाम् ।
 आग्नेश्चान्यधर्मीयतां निजगृहान्तर्णं विनिर्गम्यताम् ॥१॥

1. Study the Vedas daily. Do properly the actions that are enjoined there. Offer the fruits of actions as Ishwararpana and do worship of Ishwara through Karmanushthan. Remove the desire for Sakamya actions. Be away from the sinful actions. Reflect on the evils of sensual pleasures of this Samsara. Cultivate firmly the desire for self-realisation. Leave the house at once.

2. Have the company of the wise. Develop firm devotion towards the Lord. Cultivate firmly virtues like Santi, etc. Give up Sakamya (selfish) actions at once. Go to the best teacher. Serve his lotus feet daily. Try to get the knowledge of the one-syllable Brahman. Hear the great sentences (Mahavakyas) of Upanishads (Vedanta).

देहेऽहंमतिरुज्यतां बुधजनैः वादः परित्यज्यताम् ॥३॥

3. Enquire into the significance of the Mahavakyas (great sentences). Take refuge in Vedanta. Save yourself from unnecessary vain discussions. Reflect by logical reasoning statements that are in agreement with the Srutis. Meditate day and night on the truth that 'I am Brahman'. Remove the egoism. Remove the idea of self (Deha-Atma Budhi) in body. Do not argue unnecessarily with the spiritual teachers.

5. Sit comfortably in solitude. Fix the mind on the Supreme Self. Realise the All-full Brahman. The world will vanish when the Self is realised. Dissolve the Sanchit Karmas in the Self by the force of Gyana. Avoid by strong will connection with the current actions. Enjoy in this life the Prarabdha. When the enjoyment of Prarabdha is over get established in Brahman.

6. The burning fire of Samsara and the terrible Tapa are freed through the grace of Brahman for those who study daily these five slokas, and who enquire with a calm mind daily into their significance.

CHAPTER IX
VEDANTA STOTRAS

ATMA PANCHAKAM

नाहं देहो नेन्द्रियाण्यन्तरंगं

माहंकारः प्राणवर्गो न बुद्धिः ।

द्वाराण्यस्यैवविच्छादिवूरः

माहो नित्यः प्रत्यगात्मा शिवोऽहम् ॥१॥

1. I am neither the body, nor the internal organs, nor the senses, nor the ego, nor the vital forces and nor the intellect. I am Siva the blissful inner Self, the Eternal witness who is far away from the worldly objects of wife, son, wealth and home.

रज्वशानाज्ञा हि रज्जुर्यथा हि

स्वात्म ज्ञानादात्मनो जीवभावः ।

आज्ञोक्त्या हि भ्रान्ति नाशे सरज्ज्

जीवो नाहं देशिकोक्त्या शिवोऽहम् ॥२॥

2. Through ignorance the Atma appears to be a Jiva just as by delusion a rope appears to be a snake. By the words of a trustworthy man the illusion disappears and the snake is known to be no other than a rope. Even so, I realise that I am not Jiva (the individualised Soul) but Siva alone by the words of the preceptor.

साक्षात्तीक्ष्णं विश्वमात्मन्यसत्यं

मायज्ञानानन्द रूपे विमोहात् ।

निद्रा मोहाद्वसप्रवृत्तस्य मयं

शुद्धः पूर्णो नित्य एक शिवोऽहम् ॥३॥

3. This unreal world appears to exist in the Sat-Chit-Ananda Atman through delusion like things seen in dream but not in reality. I am Siva the one without a second who is Eternal, Pure and Perfect.

मत्तो नान्यत्किंचिदस्ति विश्वं

सत्यं बाह्यं यन्मु मायोपरमम् ।

आदर्शान्तिर्भासमानस्य तुल्यं

मय्यद्वैते भाति तस्माच्छिवोऽहम् ॥४॥

4. There is no universe really other than myself. It is by Maya that things external are super-imposed upon me who is Advaita. They are like reflections in a mirror. So I am Siva.

नाहं जातो न प्रवृद्धो न नष्टो

देहस्योक्ताः प्राकृता मयं धर्मा ।

कर्तृत्वादिश्चिन्मयम्यास्ति ना-

हं कारस्यैव ह्यात्मनो मेशिवोऽहम् ॥

5. I am neither born, nor do I grow nor die. All these so-called changes are the Dharmas (the qualities born of Nature that pertain to) of the physical body only. The idea of agency etc., belongs to the ego only, but not to Me the Atma, (the Self which is pure Intelligence) as I am Siva, the Infinite Being Himself.

नाहं जातो जन्ममृत्यु कुतोमे
 नाहं प्राणः क्षुत्पिपासा कुतोमे ।
 नाहं चित्तं शोक मोहौ कुतोमे
 नाहं कर्ता बन्धमोक्षौ कुतोमे ॥

6. I am unborn, how can I have birth and death? I am not the Prana (vital air). How can I have hunger and thirst? I am not the mind, how can I have sorrows and delusion? I am not the doer, how can I be bound or liberated?

KOWPEENA PANCHAKAM.

वेदान्तवाक्येषु सदा रमन्तो
भिक्षाश्रमात्रैश्च सुष्टिमन्तः ।
अशोकवन्तः कल्पौकवन्तः
कौपीनवन्तः खलु भाग्यवन्तः ॥१॥

1. Always dwelling in the teachings of the Vedanta, contented with food received by alms, free from grief, full of mercy, with a piece of loin cloth (to cover their nakedness)—such people are really the most lucky.

मूलं तरोः केवलमाधयन्तः
पाणिद्वये भोजनममग्रयन्तः ।
कन्धामपि स्त्रीमिव कुम्भयन्तः
कौपीनयन्त खलु भाग्यवन्तः ॥२॥

2. Depending upon the trees alone as the roof, using the hands alone as vessel for eating, rejecting even the torn clothes as if it were a woman, those indeed are really lucky who wear only a Kowpeena (strip of cloth).

देहाभिमानं परिहृत्य दूरान्—
आत्मानमात्मन्यवलोकयन्तः ।
अहंनिशं ब्रह्मणि ये रमन्तः
कौपीनवन्तः खलु भाग्यवन्तः ॥३॥

3. Casting off the body idea at a great distance, seeing the Self alone within themselves, who delight in Brahman day and night, they alone are lucky who have a Kowpeena only to wear.

स्वानन्दभावे परितुष्टिमन्तः

स्वशान्तसर्वेन्द्रियवृत्तिमन्तः ।

नान्त. न मर्त्यं न बहिः स्मरन्तः

कौपीनवन्त. खलु भाग्यवन्तः ॥२॥

4. Satisfied with the Self alone, calming the activities of the inner organs, having no consciousness of inside, middle or outside, such men are really lucky wearing only a Kowpeena.

पञ्चाक्षरं पावनमुच्चरन्तः

पतिं पशूनां हृदि भावयन्तः ।

भिक्षाशनादिषु परिभ्रमन्तः

कौपीनवन्त. खलु भाग्यवन्तः ॥

5. Uttering the sacred Panchakshara, meditating on Lord Siva, wandering from place to place living on alms, they are indeed worthy of praise who have a Kowpeena alone to wear.

MANEESHA PANCHAKAM

ज्ञानस्वप्नसुषुप्तिषु स्फुटतरा या संविदुज्जृम्भते ।
 या महादिविषीलिकाम्तनुषु प्रोता जगत्प्राद्विष्टी ।
 मेवाहं न च हरययस्यति रदग्रजापि यस्यास्ति चेत् ।
 चाण्डालोऽस्तु स तु द्विजोऽस्तु गुरुरि स्थेपा मनीषा मम ॥१॥

1. That All-knowing Self, who shines as the witnessing subject in all the three states—waking, dreaming, and deep sleep,—who permeates all objects from Brahma down to the ant,—am I and not these visible objects. Whoever has a firm and steady conviction of this Truth is my real Guru, be he a Chandala or a Brahmin. This is my strong belief.

ब्रह्मैवाह मिदं जगच्च सकलं चिन्मात्रविस्तारितम् ।
 सर्वं चैतद्विज्ञया त्रिगुण्याऽशेषं मया कल्पितम् ।
 इत्थं यस्य रदा मतिः सुखसरे नित्ये परे निर्मले ।
 चाण्डालोऽस्तु स तु द्विजोऽस्तु गुरु रित्येपा मनीषा मम ॥२॥

2. This vast universe including myself is Brahman only in the form of one expanded Chit (consciousness) manifested everywhere. This world of three Gunas is superimposed on me by Avidya. Whoever has thus the steady knowledge of the ever pure and blissful reality, is my real Guru, be he a Chandala or a Brahmin. This is my strong belief.

शश्वत्तश्चरमेव विश्वमखिलं निश्चित्य वाचा गुरो-
 निर्यं ब्रह्म निरन्तरं विमृशता निर्व्याजशान्तात्मना ।
 भूतं भावि च दुष्कृतं प्रदहता संविन्मये पात्रके-
 प्रारब्धाय समर्पितं स्ववपुरित्येषा मनीषा मम ॥३॥

3. One who has been inspired by the Guru to the determination that this world of names and forms is perishable, who is free from impurity of mind, peaceful, ever engaged in the meditation of the Eternal 'Self', who has burnt up all past and future sins by the fire of knowledge, and who has offered this body to the Prarabdha (current experience) is my real Guru, be he a Chandala or a Brahmin. This is my strong belief.

या तिर्यङ् नन्दयताभिरहमिष्यन्तः स्फुटा गृह्यते-
 यद्भासा हृदयस्तेषां विषया भान्ति स्वतोऽचेतनाः ।
 तां भास्यैः विहितार्कं मयङ्गल निभां स्फूर्तिं मदा भावयन्-
 योगी निवृत्तमानसो हि गुरुरित्येषा मनीषा मम ॥४॥

4. That consciousness which shines as the 'I' in the hearts of all beings, man and the Devatas, by whose light the insentient objects like the intellect, mind, body, senses etc., shine in their functions—he who ever meditates on that conscious being, which is non-attached to objects like the sun who illumines them, and ever remains happy, is my Guru. This is my strong belief.

यन्मोक्ष्याम्बुधिलेशलेशत इमे शम्भोदयो निर्वृता. —
 यच्चित्ते नितरां प्रशान्त कल ने लब्ध्वा मुनिर्निर्वृतः ।
 यस्मिन्नित्य मुखाद्बुधो गलित धी प्रह्वैव न प्रह्ववित्-
 यः कश्चिन्म सुरेन्द्र वन्दितपदो नूनं मनीषा मम ॥२॥

5. Getting even a particle of the drop of the bliss of that ocean of the ever-blissful Being, Indra and others merge in happiness, by attaining which the Sage rests ever contented —one whose intellect is immersed in that blissful ocean of Brahman becomes Brahman himself and not the mere knower of Brahman, such a man is to be adored by even the Lord of the Devas. Such is my firm conviction.

NIRVANA SATAKAM

मनोबुद्ध्यर्हकारचित्तानि नाहं

न च श्रोत्र जिह्वे न च घ्राण नेत्रे ।

न च व्योम भूमिर्न तेजो न वायुः

चिदानन्दः रूपः शिवोऽहं शिवोऽहम् ॥१॥

1. I am neither the mind, nor the intellect, nor egoism nor the mind-stuff (Chitta); I am neither the senses of hearing, the tongue, the nose, the eyes, nor the ether, the earth, the fire, the air; I am Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute and Bliss Absolute; I am Siva, I am Siva.

न पाव्याणि पादं यक्षोरस्य पायू

चिदानन्दः रूपः शिवोऽहं शिवोऽहम् ॥२॥

2. I am neither the vital Prana nor the five vital airs; I am neither the seven elements that constitute the body nor the five sheaths; I am neither the five organs of action, viz., speech, hands, feet, anus and genitals. I am Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute and Bliss Absolute. I am Siva. I am Siva.

न मे द्वेष्टागौ न मे शोभ मोदो-

मरो नैव मे नैव मागर्ष भावः ।

न धर्मो न स्वार्थो न कामो न मोक्षः

चिदानन्द रूपः शिवोऽहं शिवोऽहम् ॥३॥

3. In me there is neither love nor hatred, neither greed nor delusion, neither pride nor jealousy, neither Dharma (duty) nor Artha (wealth), Kama (desire) nor Moksha (salvation). I am Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute and Bliss Absolute. I am Siva, I am Siva.

न मन्त्रो न तीर्थं न वेदाः न यज्ञाः ।

अहं भोजनं नैव भोज्यं न भोक्ता-

चिदानन्द रूपः शिवोऽहं शिवोऽहम् ॥४॥

4. In me there is neither virtue nor sin ; neither happiness nor misery ; neither Mantra nor pilgrimage ; neither scriptures nor sacrifices ; I am neither the enjoyer, the enjoyed nor the enjoyment. I am Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute and Bliss Absolute. I am Siva, I am Siva.

न मृत्युर्न शंका न मे जाति भेदः

पिता नैव मे नैव माता च जन्म ।

न धन्युर्न मित्रं गुरुर्नैवशिष्यः

चिदानन्द रूपः शिवोऽहं शिवोऽहम् ॥५॥

5. For me there is neither death, nor doubt, nor caste distinctions ; neither parents, birth, friends, nor relatives, neither Guru nor disciple ; I am Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute and Bliss Absolute. I am Siva, I am Siva.

अहं निर्विकल्पी निराकार रूपी

 सदा मे ममत्वं न मुक्ति नयन्व
 विदानन्द रूपः शिवाऽहं शिवोऽहम् ॥६॥

6. I am changeless and formless. I pervade everywhere. I am the Lord of the senses. I am ever the same. I have neither liberation nor bondage. I am Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute and Bliss Absolute. I am Siva, I am Siva.

OMKARA STOTRAM

ॐकारं बिन्दु संयुक्तं
नित्यं ध्यायन्ति योगिनः ।
कामदं मोक्षदं चैव
श्रीकाराय नमो नमः ॥१॥

1. The Yogins always meditate upon OMKARA which has an Anuswara (denoted by a point) on it. This OMKARA is the bestower of all desires and salvation. We bow down to the Supreme OMKARA.

स्मरणात् कीर्तनाद्वापि
श्रवणाच्च जपादपि ।
ब्रह्म तत्प्राप्यते नित्यं
ॐ इत्येतत्परायणम् ॥२॥

2. That Supreme Brahman is attained by devoted contemplation, hearing, Japa and Sankirtana of OM at all times.

ॐ इति स्मरणेनैव
ब्रह्मज्ञानं परापरम् ।
तदेकमोक्षसिद्धि च
तदेवामृतममरुते ॥३॥

3. By the mere thought of OM one attains the highest Brahma Gyana, the state of final liberation and Immortality.

तैलधाराभिवाच्छिखं
दीर्घघंटानिनादवत् ।
उपास्यं प्रणवस्याग्रं
यस्तं वेद स वेदवित् ॥१॥

4. He who meditates on the Pranava in a continuous stream of thought like that of oil poured from one vessel to another or the continuous sound of a bell, such a man should be considered as the knower of Vedas.

सुदृढाद्येन धी दीप
शून्यमेकान्त धामिना ।
दीपं प्रणवमुच्चार्य
मनोराज्यं विज्रीयते ॥२॥

5. By the long repetition of OM the knower of the Supremo Reality who is refuged in solitude, overcomes the wandering of the mind due to the taint (of Avidya) in the intellect.

नामाग्रे सुदिमारोप्य
हस्त पादौ च संयमेन ।
मनः सर्वत्र संतृप्त
ॐकारं तत्र चिन्तयेत् ॥३॥

6. Concentrating on the tip of the nose with hands and feet controlled, the mind withdrawn from all activities, one should meditate on OMKARA, the Pranava.

ॐ हृत्प्रेकाक्षरं ध्यानात्
 विष्णुर्विष्णुत्वमाप्तवान् ।
 ब्रह्मा ब्रह्मत्वमापन्नः
 शिवतामभवन् शिवः ॥७॥

7. By the meditation on the mono-syllabled OM, Vishnu attains the status of Vishnu; Brahma attains Brahmanhood and Siva becomes Siva.

DHYANASHTAKAM

तज्ज्ञानं प्रशमकरं यदिन्द्रियाणां-
 तज्ज्ञेयं यदुपनिषत्सु निश्चितार्थम् ।
 ते धन्याः भुवि परमार्थं निश्चिनेहाः -
 शेपास्तु भ्रमनिलये परिभ्रमन्ति ॥१॥

1. That is knowledge which bestows tranquility on the senses. That, which is established by the Upanishads is fit to be known. They are really the lucky people in this world, who are intent on the realisation of the Supremo Reality. All others are simply wandering in a state of delusion.

आदौ विजित्य विषयान्महामोहराग-
 द्वेषादि शत्रुगण्यमाहत योगराज्याः ।
 ज्ञायामृतं ममनुभूत परात्मविद्या-
 कान्तामुखा यत गृहे विपश्यन् धन्याः ॥२॥

2. Having at the very outset conquered the enemies like pride, delusion, craving for objects, likes, dislikes and such other enemies, attaining the highest state in Yoga having fully experienced the bliss of immortality born of the highest Brahma Vidya those lucky people move about in their houses even in the midst of the pleasures of family life.

त्यक्त्वा गृहे रतिमधोगतिं हेतुभूता-
 मात्मेच्छयोपनिषद्दर्शसं विवन्तः ।
 धीतस्पृहा विषयभोगपदे विरक्ता-
 धन्याश्चरन्ति विज्ञनेषु विरक्तसंगाः ॥३॥

3. Leaving one's own house which is the cause of degradation, induced by the thirst for Atmic knowledge, drinking the essence of the meaning of the Upanishads, free from desire, with extreme dispassion for objects of enjoyments, lucky souls wander in solitude giving up the company of men and all attachments.

त्यक्त्वा समाहमिति बन्धकरे पदेदे-
 मानाद्यमानं सद्भा. समदर्शितम् ।
 कर्तारमन्यमवगम्य तद्वर्तितानि-
 कुर्वन्ति कर्मपरिपाकफलानि धन्याः ॥४॥

4. Lucky indeed are those who having cut off the bondage creating ideas of 'I' and 'mine', equal in honour and dishonour, perform actions with equal vision, knowing the real doer and offering unto Him all the fruits of their actions.

त्यक्त्वापि त्रयमेवेक्षितमोक्षमार्गो-
 भेदाभूतेन परिकल्पितं देद्याग्रा. ।
 ज्योतिः परापरतरं परमात्मसत्-
 धन्या द्विजा रहसि हृद्यवलोकयन्ति ॥५॥

5. Lucky are those Brahmins who having cast off the three desires (of wealth, children and Heaven), treading the path to Moksha, living on alms to maintain the body. They spend their time in the meditation of the most effulgent and self-luminous Brahman in their hearts.

नामन्न सन्न सदसन्न महन्न चाणु -
न स्त्री पुमान्न च नपुंसकमेकबीजम् ।
यै ब्रह्म तत्त्वमनुपासित मेकचित्ता-
घन्याः विरेजुरितरे भवपाशवद्धाः ॥६॥

6. They alone are worthy persons who meditate with one-pointedness on the Brahman who is neither Sat nor Asat nor either, who is neither great nor small, neither male nor female nor a eunuch. Others wander about here and there bound by the strong cords of Samsara.

अज्ञानपङ्क परिमग्नमपेतमर-
दुःस्वाभयं मरणजन्ममरणमवतम् ।
संसार बन्धनमनियमयेष्य धम्या-
ज्ञानाग्निना तदवशीर्यं विनिघ्नयन्ति ॥७॥

7. They alone deserve the praise of all who having found the world (Samsara) to be a great bondage, steeped in utter ignorance, without any essence, full of miseries of birth and death, cut asunder this bondage of Samsara by the strong sword of knowledge of Self.

शान्तेरनन्यमतिभिर्मधुर स्वभावै-

रेकत्वनिश्चित मनोभिरपेत मोहैः ।

साकं वनेषु विजितात्मपदस्वरूपं

शारत्त्रेषु सम्यगनिर्णयं विमृशन्ति धन्याः ॥८॥

8. Those are lucky men indeed who by their peaceful mind determine the one Reality, giving up all attachments, knowing the absolute Reality, wander with good souled Mahatmas drinking the nectar of knowledge of Self through the discourses on sacred scriptures.

अहिमिव जनयोगं सर्व्वं वा वञ्चयेद्यः-

कुण्डपमिव मुनादिं त्यक्तुकामो विरागी ।

विषमिव विषयान्यो मन्यमानो दुरन्ताम्-

जयति परमहंसो मुक्तिं भावं ममेति ॥९॥

9. He who renounces the company of worldly-minded-persons as if a dwelling place of serpents, deserts the company of even the most beautiful lady as if she were a corpse, leaves off the enjoyment of the sense objects as if poison—such a Paramahansa attains liberation. Glory to Him ! Victory unto Him !

10. The whole world is Nandanavana, all trees are Kalpaka (wish yielding) trees, all waters the waters of the sacred Ganges, all actions pure, words vulgar or wise the highest truth (the head of Sruti). This is the realisation of one who has realised the Brahmic splendour.

DAKSHINAMOORTY STOTRAM

2. Who, like a juggler or like a master-yogi, creates by his own will, this universe which at the beginning was unmanifested like the sprout hidden in the seed but which subsequently became differentiated under the various conditions of space and time caused by the power of Maya, to that Teacher incarnate, facing the south, be this bow.

3. Whose light alone which is real, illumines things of this universe which are but mental creations; who directly instructs His refugees by the great Vedic sentence "That thou art"; realising which alone there is no more coming back to this ocean of Samsara—to that Teacher incarnate, the Lord Dakshinamoorthy, be this bow.

4. Whose light of knowledge flows out through the eye and other senses like the light of a lamp placed inside a pot having many holes, and by that consciousness of 'I know' this whole universe appears to shine—to that Teacher incarnate facing the South, be this bow.

5. Deluded persons who vainly argue, who are as ignorant as women and children, who are blind and stupid, understand the body, breath or senses, or the ever newly springing knowledge, or nothingness as the real 'I'. To Him who removes this great ignorance caused by the expansive power of illusion, to that Teacher incarnate, Lord Dakshinamoorty, be this bow.

6. Who is the inner Self which, under the veil of Maya, like the sun or the moon eclipsed, merely exists in deep sleep owing to the withdrawal of the senses, but who when he awakens recognises himself as "I have slept"—to that Teacher incarnate facing the South, be this bow.

10. Since, in these verses, the identity of the Self with the universe has been made clear, one will attain Supreme realisation of identity with the Universe, together with the Lordship of nature and the eightfold Divine power by listening to it, by understanding its meaning, by meditating on it, and by teaching it to others.

HASTAMALAKA STOTRAM

Hastamalaka was born as the son of a Brahmin Prabhakar by name in the village called Sreebali in South India. He was very indifferent to all worldly affairs from his very boyhood. He behaved like one who was dumb and deaf. Once when Sri Sankaracharya visited this place with his followers, Prabhakar took his son Hastamalaka to him and fell at his feet. Sri Sankara lifted both the son and Prabhakar from his feet and when questioned the latter said as below :—

“O Venerable Sage ! This son of mine is mute and indifferent to all affairs from his very boyhood. He is now 13 years old. He understands none of our talks nor he takes any interest in them. He has not studied any scripture and the Vedas fit to be studied by a Brahmin. He knows not even the alphabets. With great difficulty I performed his thread ceremony. He never goes to play with his playmates. Observing his indifferent nature his friends sometimes beat him but he never becomes angry. He sometimes takes food, at other times he does not. But he is happy and cheerful always. What is his dull state of mind due to ? Pray save my child !”

In reply Sri Sankara put the following questions to the boy. The reply given by the learned boy is incorporated in the Stotra named after the boy "Hastamalaka Stotra". He was neither mute nor dumb; he was a fully illumined Gyani and a Jivanmukta.

कल्पे शिशो ! कस्य कुतोऽसि गन्ता-

1. O Beloved child ! Who art thou ? Whose son art thou ? Where do thou goest ? What is thy name ? Wherefrom do thou comest ? For my sake please give me reply to my queries. Thou art very dear unto me.

2. I am neither a man nor a Deva, nor a Yaksha (superhuman being); nor a Brahmin, a Kshatriya, a Vaishya nor a Sudra. I am neither Brahmachari (celibate), a householder, a Vanaprasthi (one leading a forest life prior to renunciation) nor a Vikshu (mendicant). I am myself the Eternal Self-knowledge.

14. Just as the difference between the various gems (precious stones) arises due to their peculiarities (in colour and shape), so also the Atma is seen separate by the difference of the Upadhi (limiting adjunct). Just as the moon is seen to be many and changing in the waters in the same way, O Vishnu, thou appearest different (in different Upadhis).

(In reality thou art one, ever pure and changeless.)
